But even if he worshipped me, do you think that anything would ever induce me to marry a German? Leave it all to me, and you shall hear good news of us before the summer is over. Seelisberg, upon the heights above the Lake of Lucerne, was the scene which M. Percier had selected for his annual holiday; instigated to that choice by his friend at Neu Schrecklich, who favoured the locality, and whose hand he was eager to clasp. Thither, accordingly, as soon as the weather became too hot for life in cities, he betook himself, accompanied by his daughter, and there, on his arrival, he was welcomed by HenHans Rothkopf, who was likewise enjoying a brief vacation and had dutifully hastened to spend it with his parents. You did well to engage your apartments in advance, the young man said; the hotel is large, but you come at the most crowded season. There is no more room left in it for a cat. His actual words were, // riy a bins de blace bour metter un chat and Mademoiselle Marthe did not fail to compliment him upon the increasing purity of his accent. Hans turned duskily red, for he disliked ridicule, though he was not, as a rule, very quick at detecting it. But M. Percier, who was much too polite to laugh at anybody, at once rebuked his daughter s bad manners. Allans, allons...
