Depeu s Poems I was born in the state of Ohio, in Marion county, in 1832. My mother was a German of well educated parents, connected with one of the colleges of Germany, the name my mother did not remember as her parents left Germany on account of the great rebellion there and came to America and settled in Virginia, where my mother was born. She was a woman of deep religious feeling, a quiet and retiring disposition. My father s parents were Hollanders, of a nervous and excitable disposition, but good moral, upright citizens. In 1835 my parents moved to Michigan and settled in Branch county. It was then wild indeed, it was then a territory, and had not yet become a state and a vast howling wilderness filled with wild roving Indians, but on comparative friendly terms with the settlers.
