Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Dixie Ranger, Vol. 7: April 1941 All data concerning acreage, areas, volume, number of plots, etc., are placed in tabular form on the map, so that reference to files is unnecessary. Last year a compartment comprising 5560 acres was scouted and then marked. On each of the five operable areas, the marking was found to follow closely the boundaries outlined on the scouting map. In the field, each worker had reference to the scouting map at all times; and time which had previously been spent seeking new operable areas bier the next ridge was put to use in marking time ber; thus greatly increasing the productivity per man. The gross volume marked was within 5 of the scouting estimate. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
