Four judges, representing different markets, acted at each competition. A high standard, based on the quality of the best butter sold in the markets of Ireland and Great Britain, was adopted in judging. On the occasion of each of the first five competitions held in the year, a limited number of Managers of Creameries registered under the Department's scheme for improvement in the management of creameries, were admitted to view the exhibits, after the judging had been completed. The judges directed the attention of the Managers to any pronounced defects which might have been noticeable, and subsequently the exhibits were examined in detail by the Managers, under the directions of one...
