BLOTTER (PAPERBACK)

Carcenet Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Oli Hazzard s Blotter consists of five sequences, each constructed using a different process. In `Graig Syfyrddin notes on hillwalking in the Welsh marches - the poet s former home - alternate with found text taken from an online walking forum. `Blotter is a shepherd s calendar of sonnets composed of Russian spambot script - a mix of lifestyle advice, gaming tips, authoritarian propaganda, bucolic fragments and apocalyptic messages. `Within Habit is a series of prose poems collaged from numerous sources. `March and May comprises parallel columns of verse. `Or As is a family of 81 seventeen-syllable poems, each one an erasure of the corresponding page in a different book the poet was writing alongside Blotter. The poems are preoccupied, above all, with the passage of time, and how that passage can be differently registered or disturbed: the working day, the distorted seasons, the timestamp of a text message, the jottings of a daybook, the formal structure of a shepherd s calendar, the double exposure of a photograph, the reverse-flow of a Twitter feed. The title, Blotter, connects these concerns, suggesting at once a police blotter, a journal, a thing for drying wet spots, and, in its painterly connotation, a way of rendering the world in a manner that is vague, blurred, or out of focus.
