AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.My book about drugs and the drug cartel is on the cutting edge of world events, terrorist activity and crime, and has its finger on the pulse of a world gone mad from all four corners. Of course, in reality, truth is much more frightening than any sci-fi thriller, and in the world of drugs, that means murder, mayhem, and conspiracies. In many cases, the conspirators are unwitting and unwilling participants. In order to understand our proximity on the map of time and how we stumbled into the quicksand that permeates all news headlines, TV, and radio channels, we must look outside and beyond our planet, in order to step back and regroup our thoughts. Our first chapter utilizes a make-believe extraterrestrial visitor who has stopped two hundred miles above our planet. While deciding where to land and where to call home, he, of course, is surprised by what he finds. We use our alien friend only in the first chapter and for a short period, because he is fiction, and our book is dead serious. We utilize our alien friend as a third-party to show how our earth appears from a distance. Chapter Two is an illustration of what America was about post-World-War-Two, when it did not contain the drug s social virus and it was not fighting the drug war. It shows what might have inspired our alien friend to traverse the universe when America held all the cards. Chapter Two will lift the veil of time that has slowly acclimated our people to accepting the results that have been perpetrated on our people. As we step into Chapter Three, we chronologically and geographically explain who, when, and where this epidemic...
