Not illustrated. 1914 Excerpt: .of you know the actual time your church was organized? Do you ever celebrate the anniversary? We believe here is an opportunity for ministering in a large way to an entire community. Several years ago occurred the fortieth anniversary of the organization of our Bement church. A committee began to prepare for this celebration months before and when the time came we had a home-coming of eight days, each having something different, and yet all contributory to the worship of the church and to the education of the community. The anniversary began and closed on Sunday. Separate days were set apart for the various departments of the church. Monday was the day for young people, with a reception in the evening. Tuesday was missionary day. A former pastor and wife were present from the foreign field, and the afternoon meeting was for the women, the pastor s wife speaking, and in the evening a stereopticon lecture was given by the former pastor. Wednesday was prayer meeting and we had letters read from the old time members who could not be at that service. Thursday we had all day meeting in the park with a basket dinner, after which we listened to reminiscences from some whose sacrifice for the church in the days of her erection were interesting and inspiring, and what a day! a day of praise and prayer. Friday was Sabbath school day, devoted to the interests that centered around it. Saturday was a rest..
