Tales from Behind the Chair is written by a hairdresser about his life in hairdressing which include tales told by the public at large. Theyre just everyday tales of everyday life. The hairdresser has three main tasks; to serve the public, to talk your way through the day and to listen . . . and boy have I listened. Thats how the book came along. You know when you think, did that really happen or did they really say that . . . well there is no better place to witness life in real time than a hairdressers salon. So sit back, drink in hand and enjoy reading about other peoples fortunes and mishaps . . . the stuff we all know we are all guilty of . . . but dont own up to them! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
