Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Grammar Part of a Course on Language: Prepared for Instruction in the U. S, Corps of Cadets The present work results from no little observation of the deficiencies attendant upon ordinary grammatical instruction. In the ordinary grammars, these deficiencies appear to be in the Method, the Classification, the Phraseology, the Multiplication of arbitrary Exceptions, and in the inutility for improvement in other studies. In seeking a remedy, the author has found that the last thing to be sought was innovation. In grammar, this is wholly out of place, for In that subject, over under men s thoughts, the oldest principles are best. These deficiencies are themselves the Innovations. The present work will be found to accord with the earliest and simplest views of grammar. 1. Method. - The material in our common grammars is not liable to censure. The substance of all good grammars must be nearly the same. But the arrangement of that material has been such, that what nature, and reason, and the bewildered pupil demanded first, has been put last. It has...
