It is therefore not a time for national glorification or for appeals to greed or passion, but for thoughtful, solemn consideration of our duty. By no scheming of our own, and in ways very strange to us, we have been forced into governmental relations with eight millions of people on the other side of the planet. Some of them are partially civilized; many are wholly primitive, and nearly all are heathen with a thin veneer of Romanism of the mediaeval-Spanish type. They are variously judged. As in China, much depends upon the point of view. Many soldiers, having come to the Philippines with a military man's natural ambition to see the active service which will give the coveted opportunity for fame and promotion, see in the Filipino only an enemy. They chafe under the transfer from the absolute military supremacy, which they enjoyed prior to July fourth, to the present subordination to civil power. The guerrilla warfare which is still being waged in various parts of the Islands, notably in Cebu and Samar. has resulted in some massacres of our troops so treacherously atrocious that the typical soldier is apt to imagine that every Filipino carries a concealed bolo which he would use if he dared, and that the wisest course would be to give the Army a free hand until the natives have learned a wholesome...
