

The Story of Kinnard Breen (Paperback)

By R K Roberts

Xulon Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . R.K. Roberts is a voice that needs to be heard. The plot will draw you in from the opening chapter - suspense will keep you reading until the last page. Mark Batterson Kinnard Breen is the tale of an adventurous boy with hopes big enough to equal his dreams. The woods near his childhood home in rural Wisconsin became his wonderland. He didn't know that an ancient Native American treasure lay just beneath the surface. Sworn to secrecy by the old man on whose property the discovery lays, Isaac becomes Kinnard's friend and mentor, forever changing the course of his young life. Kinnard keeps the secret promised to Isaac, only to be torn from it when forced to move from the place he loves most: Prairie Hope. At age thirty, Kinnard Breen quickly becomes the hottest new broadcast journalist on the planet. His enormous talent and handsome looks were not the only reason he was highly sought after by the networks; it was an investigative report he had been working on they wanted most. It was perhaps the largest political story...
