Flagship Church Resources, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Compassion changes everything: how you view the world,yourself,even Jesus. Produced in partnership with Compassion International, this five-week exploration of compassion touches both the head and heart--And helps participants discover (and share) God s heart for the poor. The book contains 25 daily readings, divided into five one-week segments. Each of the 25 daily readings includes Scriptural support for the author s arguments, a page for journaling responses to challenging questions about the day s reading, and a prayer asking God for guidance through the issue at hand. Week 1: The Poverty of the Heart The first step on the journey is to understand the poverty of the heart, to search our hearts and ask why it s sometimes so hard to help those in need. How are things like materialism and individualism stifling compassion? On the journey, we ll set down the burden of guilt and pick up God s grace instead. Week 2: God is Not Silent God has provided a map for our journey in loving others. This week we ll explore what the Bible has to say about serving the poor, the widows, and the orphans, and how God desires for us to show his love to those in need. Week 3: Understanding Poverty Understanding poverty will guide the steps we take in releasing others from it. This week we ll explore what poverty is--its causes and effects and how it s a spiritual matter at its core. Week 4: Prayer Prayer is the weapon God has given us for the journey of loving and serving those in need. This week of prayer and journaling will help us explore the power of prayer in a world in...
