The composition of the Court thus admitted of three different combinations, consisting of those two Courts below which were not parties to the original judgment. It was abolished on the 1st November, 1875, by the Judicature Acts, which transferred its jurisdiction to the present Court of Appeal. See Judicature Act, 1873, s. 18 (4); Judicature Act, 1874, s. 2. interest and exchange the bills. The old bills had been delivered to them for a special purpose inconsistent with lien. The fair inference from the transaction was that the new bills were intended to be handed to Burn that he might deposit them in the tin box, and the accidental circumstance that by reason of his illness these particular bills happened to remain in the hands of the bankers for a longer period than usual did not affect the case. The transaction was very...
