Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Andrew Craigie and the Scioto Associates You will remark that I said he had the desire to be true and fair; it is easy to criticize, especially at a distance of a century and in matters of which we can at best have but a very imperfect knowledge. The Craigie Papers contain very few letters to or from William Duer; living together in New York, the office of Duer was the scene of their relationship and Craigie was at home in the house and family of the first noted New York speculator. Their relationship must have begun soon after the close of the Revolution, for we find Craigie in the summer of 1787 going to London as Duer s confidential agent to Daniel Parker. His letter of August, 1787 is more valuable in showing his relation with Duer than Parker s relations with Duer. I hope you have written to me, reads this letter, fully respecting the several Objects of Speculation which we have so often conversed on. You and I have gone some great lengths in giving each other proofs of Confidence and I do not believe either of us will ever have occasion to repent of it. I do not pretend however to be answerable for the success of my conduct but only for the principles which govern it, these being always consistent with the assurances I have made you will secure me your friendship whatever be the Event of our Operations - but it is with great satisfaction I inform you that every thing appears favorable to our views. Do my friend devote as much of your time as you can possibly spare to the Objects...
