

Plastic Mac - A Plastic Surgeon s Story (Paperback)

By John McGregor

New Generation Publishing, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is a personal account of a plastic and cosmetic surgeon s career, from his earliest dreams to his recent retirement following a stroke. He gives an insight into the difficulties of this career, the training involved, the patients encountered, the interesting places visited and the NHS. The increasing interest in cosmetic surgery and its place in today s world are discussed, together with some of the author s own views and personal experiences in the NHS and in private practice. He gives a historical review of this specialty and a glimpse into the future. This account will be of interest to the general public as well as anyone who is contemplating a career in medicine, plastic or cosmetic surgery. John McGregor was born in Paisley in 1944 and educated at Paisley Grammar School. His undergraduate degrees were obtained at Glasgow University and postgraduate training in Glasgow, Nottingham and Edinburgh. This autobiography is the second book he has written, the first being published in 2009 relating to his first year after suffering a sudden stroke and his experiences of recovery.

READ ONLINE
[4.37 MB]

Reviews

A really awesome pdf with lucid and perfect information. It is loaded with wisdom and knowledge I am just effortlessly could get a satisfaction of reading a composed book.

-- Claudine Jerde

Extensive manual! Its this type of great read through. This can be for all who statte there was not a worth reading. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Dr. Furman Becker V