Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letter to a Class of Young Ladies, Upon the Study of the History of the United States Beloved and Respected Sir, The young ladies of the Senior Class, feeling that in a few days, they shall be deprived of your instructions, and desirous of pursuing still farther the course commenced in your Seminary, respectfully request your advice relative to a choice of such books, as are most calculated to facilitate their design. Realizing in some degree, the blessings they enjoy as citizens of this highly favored land, and deeply interested in the relation of events, which by the blessing of God, procured its independence, they make their request with particular reference to the history of their own country. In the choice of books, which claim their first attention, are most conducive to their improvement, and would constitute a profitable selection for a young lady s library, they feel, that your advice is highly deskable, and will be of lasting advantage to them, when they have finished their pupilage. They beg leave at this time, to...
