

The Song from a Dream (Paperback)

By Jesús García Lorza

Palibrio, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Where two real friends are in the adversity of life. Where dreams can be achieved by having a genuine faith in Jesus Christ. Where evil looses where true love abides. Abel with his mysterious friend named Alberto had to face many giants in life. Abel a Mexican immigrant had to surrender his life to the One and recognize he needed to trust in Him. This trust would then enable him to overcome the obstacles of his life. In return he would achieve his dream, even though in the end it would cost him the life of his wife. Only through the faith of his little daughter Citlali (star) of 8 years of age; who believed in the invisible One called: ?I AM THE SONG OF A DREAM? would be the help for them to overcome life's obstacles. At the same time both of them without knowing that the mysterious One was their friend Alberto. Citlali achieved seeing beyond dreams even though she was a simple girl with a cleft (or deformed) lip. Citlali's father then realized that God does not love...
