Condition: New. How much can go wrong in a day? How much can go wrong in a life? In this chronicle of a year of things going wrong (and just occasionally right), Gray meets with triumph and disaster and treats those two impostors just the same. But, this being a Simon Gray diary, other avenues, not to mention parks, cinemas, river journeys, hospitals and trains, provide an irresistible melange of hilarious anecdote and bleak humour. The elegance of the writing, coupled with Gray?s sheer disbelief at what the world throws at him, makes his work a joy to read.
