

The Wagon: Trapped in a Frightening Dream (Paperback)

By Paul B Knight

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A successful real estate broker in Colorado early in the Twenty First Century begins to experience a bloodcurdling nightmare that has him questioning his sanity and his family relationships. Efforts to end recurring dreams and re-establish his failing relationship with his wife lead him to counseling and investigation of his family s past, seeking an answer to the clandestine secret lurking behind veiled explanations of his family heritage with possible connections to his dreams. His quest leads him to pioneers traveling west on the Oregon Trail, raising more questions than answers as he discovers only sketchy and seemingly irrelevant and unrelated information. Deciding to give up his fruitless search and simply enjoy a vacation, he suddenly finds himself transported in time, personally involved in the exodus from the chaotic aftermath of America s civil war. Exposed to dangers and life threatening accusations, he struggles to deal with the challenges of his personal situation while facing murderous attacks that he doesn t understand. Fearing that he may be stuck in the time of the past and worried that he may...
