Ah, Judge, a fine morning! Yes, out for a walk too, And just now was wishing for some one to talk to. Fine lot? You are right; and I safely may say Twill he doubled in value a year from to-day, For Washington s steadily growing, you know, Even now, though hard times make development slow: But business is bound to recover, and then You ll see the whole city just booming again. It must, for the nation s behind it; and yet It is equally true, as we should not forget - Though a quite paradoxical observation - The city is still behind the nation, And therefore it clearly must advance To its proper place when it gets a chance. That lot? You re too late: it was recently sold To a friend of mine here, who proposes to hold Till he s able to build, if he don t lose his place In the Treasury. Oh, what a shame and disgrace To our nation it is that so...

Reviews

This publication may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
