La Roy Sunderland We are aware that some may think the present production uncalled for, inasmuch as enough has been written to satisfy the most incredulous. This position, however, is not always tenable. Many people are led more by feeling than by reason or argument. To have such act understandingly they must receive line upon line, and precept upon precept. And when we view the measures and plans that are adopted by a certain class of men to bring about a certain professed benevolent object at the present day, we feel that every man ought to act understandingly and in the fear of God. The abolition of that growing evil, - domestic negro slavery, - is ardently desired by all true lovers of human kind. That it will be abolished, we have no doubt. But of the precise time, no man knoweth; yet we would...
