Detectives Marx and Durst are caught up in a mysterious case of missing body parts that are washing up on Gulfport shores. All law enforcement agencies are caught up in cleaning up the city from the Camping prophecy hysteria. Chief of Police orders the two Detectives off the case, even suspends them. On the opposite side of the US, to the west, Officer Ankti struggles with his own mysteries and his inability to understand his peoples spiritual heritage. He is lost in his own land. Now a mother of a lost son, pleads with Detective Fiona Marx to find the killer and bring justice for them. Two Detectives have to make a choice to go against their orders and chase the stranger across state lines, eventually to lead them into the Arizona desert, in the Navajo Nation. Bodies are piling up across the southern United States and it compels the detectives to follow the clues into the heart of ancient Earth s secrets that only the gods foretold. Will the stranger lead to the final answer about the dead people or bring them to their doom?.
