Bella Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 240 pages. Unemployed university professor Tyler Marsh is pounding the pavement looking for a job. Disillusioned with academia, shes aiming for an analysts spot in the private sector but after a year of rejections based on her over-qualification, shes dumbed down her resume in a desperate attempt to get her foot in the door somewhereanywhere! When Buffalos leading marine engineering firm offers her a low-level placement as a personal assistant, shes sure it cant get any worse, until she meets the woman she will be working for. Chief Innovation Officer and wounded veteran Georgie DiNamico doesnt want an assistant or anyone else bothering her. She has her work, her dog, and her nightmares to keep her company. Heir-apparent to her familys engineering firm, a head injury suffered in Afghanistan has left her feeling too broken for anything except her work. Georgie has no use for the helper that her family insists she hire. But when Tylers resume lands on her desk, along with a company background check listing the advanced degrees she omitted, Georgie sees an opportunity to add a researcher to her R and D team. Tyler quickly realizes Georgie is not the damaged goods everyone sees. Thoughtful, forthcoming, and generous is Tylers first impression of her would-be boss and it alleviates much of her trepidation. The outrageous salary and benefits help too, but working with the woman the family sees as shattered looks like the least of her challenges. She recognizes something special in Georgie DiNamico, garnering trust, loyalty, and something moresomething Tyler hasnt thought about for a very, very long time.
