It hasn't worked out for her and she isn't about to go chasing it. But when a wildfire sparks to life in the Alaskan wilderness, love comes looking for Jess. Jake Smith is a grizzly shifter, a smokejumper, a maverick. He fights the wildfires that the other guys can't handle. But when Jake parachutes into this particular fire, he gets more than he bargained for. Jess recognizes the lean, chiseled firefighter immediately. He brings back memories of their past. But as far as Jess is concerned, they don't have a future. Not after what Jake did. Except fate has a funny way of reconnecting people. And today's fire seems to have happened for a reason. Can Jess ever learn to trust Jake again? And can Jake tame his demons long enough to claim his mate? It's going to take more than passion to forge a bond between these...
