Brand New Book  Print on Demand .By the Grace of God: Twenty-Five Years of Pastoring Black Baptists Do you every feel a little less than others, when it comes to ministry? Do you find yourself wondering are you the only one who wrestles with self-doubt, difficult people, and challenging circumstances? If you have answered yes to these questions then By the Grace of God is written with you in mind. This book shares the significant highs and lows that I have encountered in reaching my 25th year of Pastoring Black Baptists. Especially, those who have never Pastored Black Baptist may think that the title is too racists. However, I would argue that even though there is a significant amount of common ground among Blacks, Whites, Hispanics, Baptists, Pentecostal, and Methodists, each group has some significant differences. By the Grace of God is my story of regarding Black Baptists. Here Is A Preview Of What You ll Read About . - My driving a cab and sweeping floors - Catching rain water in a bucket during the worship service and losing the vote the vote to fix the hole -...
