Excerpt from Biographical Sketches of the Samuel Olin Family At a picnic gathering at Gull Lake, Mich., on Wednesday, July, 28th, 1886, where several members of the Ezra Olin family were in attendance, the question of organizing an Olin Reunion was presented by W. W. Olin to the writer. After a little time passed in discussion, it was decided to call together the few friends there assembled, and present the subject for their consideration. A few chairs and benches were hastily arranged on the camp ground, a pressing invitation was personally given to each, and rather reluctantly, with little faith, the few friends seated themselves, when W. W. Olin stated the object of assembling. The more thought the subject received the more it was considered feasible, and a step in the right direction. The enthusiasm, which at first but three or four keenly felt, began to spread, and soon all entered quite heartily into the work. A temporary organization was effected by choosing G.R. C.Adams, President; W. W. Olin, Secretary; W. W. Russell, Treasurer, and Geo.S. Nye, Historian. Other meetings were soon after called, committees were appointed, preparations made, and the first Olin Reunion was held at Gull Lake, Mich., October 1 st, 1886, about 180 persons being present. At this meeting an invitation was given to hold the second Reunion the next year at Streetsboro , Ohio. O. F. Haymaker was elected President; Elon Olin, Treasurer; Geo.S. Nye, Historian; W. W. Olin, Secretary; and afterward C. R. Doolittle was elected Secretary for Ohio. The result and success of this meeting, where over 400 relatives were...
