Book House, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This unique activity book will carry you back in time--and provide loads of game-playing fun! Want to know what games people played long ago--and try them yourself? Now you can! Just press-out the models and decorate them with stickers to recreate parlor games from throughout history, including ones popular with African, Native-American, and Viking cultures. Games include: - Fighting Serpents: a board game of North American Indian origin where the two opponents try to capture each other's pieces - Nine Men's Morris: a medieval game of strategy, where players try to outmaneuver one another and block each other's pieces - Hyena chase: an African game where the opponents race one another around a spiral board. - And variations of dominoes and snakes ladders - And many more!.
