Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Weakland is a talented writer.(who) admirably weaves pacifistic themes in a novel thrawt with war. -- Foreword Clarion Review Forget everything you know about Morgan Le Fay and enter the world of Morgen of Avalon. She was King Arthur s healer, his love, the Faerie Queen destined to help him evoke peace throughout war torn Britannia. And so Avalon s brightest hope became human. Mortality proves a double-edged sword that dulls Morgen s memories, especially when fate separates her from Arthur at birth. Magical in every sense of the word, the new found princess so irritates High King Uther Pendragon that he imprisons her in a nunnery where she forgets her purpose -- even her connection to Arthur. What can she have in common with a brother who instigates bloodshed every time he enters a battlefield? How can they share the same peaceful goals? Darkness clouds all perception until Merlin, a mysterious enchanter, captures Morgen s affections. This arch mage holds the key to uniting warrior and fairy, if he ignores the secret longings of his own heart. Passion and prophecy consume Morgen as she finds herself torn between two vastly different men while the battle for Britannia increases its fury. Set amidst the backdrop of King Arthur s turbulent rise to power, Morgen of Avalon: Dreamspell, is the first in a series of romantic fantasy novels that introduces Arthur and Morgen as star crossed lovers-not the typical adversaries found in many Arthurian novels. Will their love be strong enough to over ride convention, free Britannia once and for all? Story Excerpt Morgen grasped hold of Arthur s bloodied sleeve, but he easily shook free. All the anger, the...
