Shortly after entering Egypt with her husband, Sarai is taken into Pharaoh's harem as his newest, most favored concubine. The breathtaking, ageless beauty is forced to cling to her faith in God as she prays for the strength to accept her new position and endures a series of mysterious plagues that can only be indicative of a wrathful deity's divine judgment. Discover a remarkable reimagining of Sarai's plight in Egypt, where she humbly set aside her own honor to protect the man through whom all the nations of the earth would be blessed. Includes study questions and Bible references for readers who want to dive deeper individually or with their small groups.
