All In For Life takes you to these places with Ace Crockett, a poker player running from his boring life and headed for trouble with a lonely stripper, a naive school teacher, and a street-smart housekeeper. He believes he has convinced all three women to end their unplanned pregnancies before he returns home. Riddled with guilt, Ace finds redemption and a fresh start. Abandoned by Ace, each woman gives birth to a baby girl. The girls meet at college, and their friendship remains steadfast through marriages, betrayal, and loss of life. While considering a run for public office, Ace fears his secrets will be exposed when he meets the daughters he never knew existed: a private investigator bent on untangling her mother s mysterious past, a young mom who sees good in everyone, and a business woman torn between her plans and her fiance s career. Discovering the shocking past that connects them all will bring the young women face to face with the father who never wanted them born and profoundly affected their mothers futures. Now Ace is in desperate need of something only the daughters can provide. An alibi. A hero. A donor.
