Excerpt: . family sketches. daniel tenney and sylvia kent, and their family. Having thus traced the ancestry of our father and mother, I will proceed to give an account of them and their family in their order: daniel tenney. Our father was born on the 13th day of February, 1794, at Temple, in New Hampshire. At the age of nine years he removed to Weston, Vermont. When sixteen years old he went to Dorset, Vt., to learn the trade of a hatter. The hatting business, as it existed in those days and for sometime after, is obsolete now. Now all hats are manufactured in a few large cities. Then every considerable village had its hat shops for the manufacture of hats, as much as its tailors and shoemakers. Having learned the trade, he married Sylvia Kent, our mother, on the 26th of October, 1815, her birthday, and settled in Dorset, where he pursued his trade. In October, 1819, he removed to Grand Isle County, Vt. Two large, fertile and populous islands in lake Champlain, with some small ones, compose Grand Isle County. He located on the south island, which is considerably the largest, on the shore of Keeler s Bay, which looks towards Vermont, and there set up a hat shop and manufactory. There were no villages on the island, and the people were mostly farmers. There were many Quakers there, and he took a great liking to them and their ways, and he became...
