Twenty-three year-old Chicago hooker Lynn is having a dull, glum day when she engages in a session with Dale, one of her favorite clients. Dale and his wife, Adeline, have worked with Lynn before. Rich and attractive, she s quite pleased when Dale makes an offer to her to become a resident in their palatial home. But with the offer comes a year of being their servant. Of course, she ll be well compensated, and she likes them. So does her roommate, Melody. When Lynn meets Angela, Adeline s mom, she discovers the full truth of the offer made to Lynn. It involves induction into the Society, a secret organization run by the powerful and wealthy for centuries, all with the altruistic goal of raising the status of downtrodden women like Lynn. Having screwed up her life with a failed, early marriage, a miscarriage, and years as a hooker, Lynn figures surrendering her freedom for a year in exchange for a six-figure payday can t possibly hurt. It s a sacrifice now for a future later. For a year . . . she will be a slave for freedom.
