By Beth Durkee

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Does God hear us when we pray? Does He ever answer? Does He know when we are suffering? Does He care? When I was a child, I would sit in the church captivated by the calming resonation of chanted prayers. It provided a great sense of comfort to me-like leafing through a well-read leather-bound book. This was the first inkling I had of the place where my heart belonged-the Catholic Church. As the years passed, no one would have known that my bright childhood would take a turn towards a seemingly dark and isolated future. There were many times when I skirted death-birthing complications and multiple emergency surgeries stemming from malformed blood vessels in my brain. What had saved me at these moments, were miraculous chance happenings that came at times when I prayed the hardest for them. I lost a great many things-my balance, my gift for math and sciences, my visual clarity and my short term memory. It was a heavy burden that I still carry today. Even so, I knew that it was not the end. God must...
