Scheduled to hang as a convicted murderer, Billy is represented in Lincoln County, New Mexico, by attorney Ira Leonard. But in a life spanning the continent and six of the most eventful decades in the nation s history, Leonard was much more than Billy s lawyer. After Billy escapes, is rediscovered, and killed, Leonard moves on to other adventures. In a time when many people were swept along by great economic and political currents, Ira Leonard helped to shape the landscape of the American West. Sidney Leonard Gardner, the great-grandson of Ira Leonard, takes us on a fictional journey that captures the essence of his great-grandfather s experiences and encompasses some of the most eventful decades in building up the United States. This intriguing novel, told as an interview, provides a glimpse into the last year of Leonard s life as he harkens back to his time as a printer, lawyer, and judge who moved from New York westward. Gardner presents Leonard as a just and determined man who fearlessly played a leading role in the Lincoln County wars.
