

What Makes Women Sick (Paperback)

By Doyal

Rutgers University Press, United States, 1995. Paperback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Lesley Doyal has done it again! By making a political, cross-cultural analysis the core of every topic she covers, she makes us change the way we think about and act on critical issues in women s health. Students in public health and in women studies will find this intelligent, accessible book a unique and enlightening resource. --Nancy Worcester, University of Wisconsin-Madison, and National Women s Health Network What makes women sick? To an Ecuadorean woman, it s nervios from constant worry about her children s illnesses. To a woman working in a New Mexico electronics factory, it s the solvents that leave her with a form of dementia. To a Ugandan woman, it s HIV from her husband s sleeping with the widow of an AIDS patient. To a Bangladeshi woman, it s a fatal infection following an IUD insertion. What they all share is a recognition that their sickness is somehow caused by situations they face every day at home and at work. In this clearly written and compelling book, Lesley Doyal investigates the effects of social, economic, and cultural conditions on women...
