TEMPTED BY THE UNEXPECTED (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Admit it. You've thought about it. But you've never acted on it. What would happen if you did? Or instead you found someone willing to meet you half way? Peyton Buckholtz is an up and coming abstract artist with a fast growing reputation in Reno, Nevada. She leads a semi-solitary life void of messy, confusing encounters with men. One particular Friday, to celebrate a finished piece of work, she enjoys a drink at a popular hang out along the Truckee River. With an unintended compromised ability to get home, Peyton finds herself entangled with a man named Alex Dunn Cutwater. The stoic corporate attorney by day is tempted and tortured by taboo acts that most people would never engage in. Particularly the thrill of sex in a public place. Alex can't risk his reputation and career by going too far with desires that could be considered lewd and lawbreaking. Until meeting Peyton. Alex begins to shed the cloak of his secret craving, however his affections begin to take a deeper hold with Peyton and he wonders if the connection is worth pursuing.
