He was as eminent for his Christian character as for his scientific attainments. Hon. John B. Kerr, in 1863 chosen a member of the Executive Committee of the Society, was faithful in attendance at the meetings and prompt in the discharge of the duties devolved upon him. He was remarkable for strict probity, tender sympathies, warm affection and unflinching devotion to what he believed was right. The sorrow of his colleagues at his death is lightened by the belief, that though suddenly called, he joyfully passed to the presence of his Lord. Financial. The continued prostration of all business enterprises and the great reduction of incomes from every source, again affect unfavorably the receipts of the Society. Expeditions. The bark Liberia, whose departure was...
