Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Exposition of the Parables, Vol. 4 of 5: And of Other Parts of the Gospels He said moreover to his disciples also: There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and this steward was accused unto him, as dissipating his possessions. And he called him and said unto him, What is this which I hear concerning thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou shalt not have it in thy power to be steward any longer. And the steward began to say in himself, What shall I do? for my lord is taking the stewardship from me: to dig I have not strength, to beg I am ashamed. I have concluded, what I shall do; that when I have been removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. And having called to him each one of the debtors of his own lord, he said to the first, How much dost thou owe to my lord? And he said, An hundred baths of oil. And he said to him, Take thy writing, and having sat down, write quickly fifty. Then he said to another, And thou, how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred cors of wheat. And he saith to him, Take thy writing, and write eighty. And his lord commended the steward of injustice, because he did prudently: for the children of this world are more prudent for their own generation, than the children of light. And I say unto you, Make friends for yourselves of the mammon of injustice, that when ye fail, they may receive you into the everlasting tabernacles. About the Publisher Forgotten...
