Excerpt from Closing Exercises of the Practitioner s Course of Lectures Delivered in the Spring of 1883 in the Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital of Chicago Later, by request of Prof. Ludlam, I called a meeting of the incorporators, who became trustees. A Faculty was chosen. The first course of lectures soon commenced, and for almost a quarter of a century this college has been in successful and continuous operation. It was not, however, until Within the past six years that a new era dawned upon the school and hospital. In that interval, a glorious result and the most remarkable prosperity has been achieved. The consequence is that the Old Hahnemann is before all the Homoeopathic colleges in this or any other country, and her Alumni honor her, their Alma Mater, as she has honored them. Some years after our charter was granted, the State Constitution was amended, and Article II provides that No corporation shall be created, or especial laws or charters extended, changed or amended, except those for charitable, educational, penal or reformatory purposes, which are to...
