Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Insecurity of British Property in Peru: Imprisonment of a British Subject; Contempt of British Authority; Bad Faith and Fraud in the Administration of the Law; Persecution Edured in the Attempt to Obtain Justice; An Appeal to the Representatives of the British Nation I come forward to show that there is a case of grievous injustice - that all the temperate measures prescribed by the most eminent legal advisers have been resorted to in vain - that courts of judicature have violated the laws of two countries - that personages of exalted rank, high Government authorities, have, some from culpable indifference, others from interested motives, and others again from timidity, refused to render that even-handed justice due to all men in countries laying claim to civilisation, or thrown their weight in the scale to further iniquity and oppress the innocent. The proofs I adduce are clear and irrefragable; they constitute a chain of evidence of striking and unbroken continuity. In all the legal proceedings that have taken place, the case has never been met on its merits, the evidence never been impugned; technical objections have alone been resorted to in pursuance of the too obvious design to obstruct the course of justice. Though the corroborative proofs and explanatory incidents connected with my case require to be given at length, the facts themselves are simple enough, and may be embodied in a few words.
