She left behind fame and fortune, and discovered something far more precious: the love of a strong Western man. From the spotlight . . . The toast of New York's theater world, Sabrina Chadwick dazzled with her raven-haired beauty and brilliant performances. But her rising star came crashing down after a disastrous night of scandal and betrayal that left the young actress with nothing but a broken heart. Now the preacher's daughter who found glittering success on the stage must begin a new life somewhere she can escape her shattered past as Sabrina Chadwick. . . . to love's shining light. Lincoln Buchanan had no idea that the lovely lady new to Colorado Springs had been a star back East. The wealthy mine owner only knew that Victoria Drumm was stranded without accommodations in a city bustling with gold rush fever! Link offers Tori shelter in his sprawling home and agrees to help track down her brother, a fervent union organizer in nearby Cripple Creek. As desire flares between Tori and her rugged rescuer, so do the demands of striking miners in a violent...
