RACE, SPORT AND POLITICS: THE SPORTING BLACK DIASPORA (PAPERBACK)

SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Written by one of the leading international authorities on the sociology of race and sport, this is the first book to address sport's role in the making of race, the place of sport within black diasporic struggles for freedom and equality, and the contested location of sport in relation to the politics of recognition within contemporary multicultural societies. Race, Sport and Politics shows how, during the first decades of the twentieth century, the idea of the natural black athlete was invented in order to make sense of and curtail the political impact and cultural achievements of black sportswomen and men. More recently, the black athlete as sign has become a highly commodified object within contemporary hyper-commercialized sports-media culture thus limiting the transformative potential of critically conscious black athleticism to re-imagine what it means to be both black and human in the twenty-first century. Race, Sport and Politics will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology of culture and sport, the sociology of race and diaspora studies, postcolonial theory, cultural theory and cultural studies.
