Carlisles Crossings: A Veterans Story is a glimpse into the lives of four courageous families who decided to build a living legacy. From the Civil War days, World War II until now the author paints a vivid picture of strength that stood the test of time and overcame insurmountable odds. The humor and candor with which he writes is refreshing as he recounts stories of love, relationships, travel, and adventure. The pain of war and the noble cause of freedom is captured in such a way the reader is enamored by its characters. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
