Later the four-and-a-half year-old child finds her way into the magical corner shop, where kindly old Mrs. Mills helps her to choose the protective behaviours that will see her safely through childhood. In Good Choice, author Barbara Cook presents a fictional representation of A Soul s Story, based on her personal experiences. Depicted through two of the magical and heart-warming consultations at pivotal moments on this soul s journey, it offers a view of how one s existence evolves. This book develops the consciousness of the soul by uncovering what it has always known, and allowing it to take in the divine essence of its earthly experiences.
