Excerpt: .Division of Kent and Conservative Whip, and Political Secretary to the Treasury in both Lord Salisbury's first and second ministry. It has been disposed of this year to Miss Boyd, who intends to keep it for a home in connection with her Orphanage of the Infant Saviour, at Kilburn. During the time that the Akers have been at Malling Abbey, discoveries have been made of lids of coffins, with circles on the top, and a line running down the centre, crossed in two or three places with foliage: in all likelihood the resting-place of the Abbesses. The gateway chapel was renovated in the year 1858 by the Akers. It had passed through various vicissitudes of fortune: it would appear that it was at one time a tannery; then, in 1773, it was a meeting-house; then a carpenter's shop. Since All Saints Day,...
