Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .By the end of The Toxic Mismanagement of Freedonia, beleaguered civil servant Sancho Tonto was ready to abandon the strange, dysfunctional world of Freedonian bureaucracy. Instead, he has chosen to continue to fight a losing battle against a system that favors profit over the environment, poverty, and people. Sancho holds on to his position in the Freedonia Advance Repair Team (FART) while accumulating a store of information related to mismanaged government resources and the self-interested old boys who run the show. Those same old boys suspect Sancho is the author of a satirical account of their many failings, but they lack the evidence they need to move against him-although that doesn't stop them from making his life miserable. While a new and erratic president panders to the global oligarchy, Sancho bears witness to mishandled environmental crises, homegrown terrorism, chronic gun violence, and a police force whose growing brutality illustrates its transformation from a peacekeeping body into a militant force at the beck and call of Freedonian elites. A biting, Swiftian account of bureaucratic ineptitude and corruption, The Toxic Mismanagement of Freedonia 2.0 is an account of a dystopian society only a discomforting step or two away from reality.
