

A Day Off from Reckoning

By Lori Vekre

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 656 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.6in. The author has combined three triptychs of her earlier works into this hefty book of 656 pages (Volume One of three volumes). The volume embarks on a saucy, fervent jaunt with an impassioned tango dancer. The second novella swings around to laud the life of a father, capturing unfathomable undertones: My father is a very complex, very misunderstood, man full of enigma. At the end of the story, the daughter discovers just how esoteric her father really is. The thread of an otherworldly father is picked up further in the book The Elevator Makers Daughter. The life saga of a Native American couple begins in Home Before Nine and ends in the last book of the volume Never Home. The following is a compilation from the life saga books: Fala was crossing off each day of the calendar as she had been doing for three months now. Life as a nursing student had become one hard day after another with no relief in sight. When you stay too long where your soul doesn't belong your soul can become ensnared and...
