

Dreams, Hope and Tears

By M J. Nooy

Xlibris, Corp. Paperback. Condition: New. 80 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. A journey I will never, until my last breath, forget. Mike was a horseman and game huntin wrangler for High Country Outfitters, based in Joseph Oregon. You couldnt miss Mike. He was your typical six-foot rancher, wearin a white straw hat, sandy brown hair, long sleeved plaid shirt tucked in to his Wranglers, and dark tan colored cowboy work boots. Mike looks real good with a dark brown mustache or even a three or four day growth on his face. The women would actually quiver if he looked their way. Mike wasnt a cowboy; he was a horseman. He said hed rather ride a horse than drive a car. Oh yeah, this guy was probably born one hundred years ago, in another life. I was the wild march hair, and he would be the field of wheat that would only bend when the wind blew. One thing about it, he knew he was the chosen one to calm my patootie! Let er Buck! Mike and I had a specific type animal in mind. We were interested in a strong spirited stallion to enhance our herd. We werent looking...
