They don't see the outside of a human but the inside of a human. - Cesar Millan Dogs are one of the most special beings that walk the earth. They are compassionate, loyal, and love unconditionally. The one downfall of a dog is how short their lives are. It is incomprehensible that something so elegant only has such a short time on this earth. I have lost several dogs in my days, and it hurts worse and worse each time. I decided to research ways to extend a pet's life. After many years of research and digging I compiled the best recipes for taste and health. These recipes will help your dog live his or her life to the fullest for the longest amount of time possible.
