Did you catch that? Can you imagine sitting down around a campfire and talking to these men at the end of their lives and saying, Hey, tell me what that was like when you saw God move. To your surprise they just look at you and say something you can't believe, You can have the same experience, the same type of God story as I do. In this book Chad and I want to challenge the ordinary, push you to your limits where all you can do is trust that God is greater than your circumstance and fear. We want to see young and old come to life, and truly start living out what the Christian Life is all about. Written in a way to make you feel like we are sitting right there talking with you, going through this life together. Hope you like it and prepare yourself to go on a journey that only God can author.
